ANXIETY
THE PERSPECTIVE OF PRAISE
PHILIPPIANS 4:4-5

NOVEMBER 10, 2024
DR. ROB SUMRALL

One point sermon: A perspective of praise in anxious moments is choosing to see that God is in _____, working for my _____, and _____ to me when the situation indicates otherwise.

How do we foster a perspective of praise?

1. Train your _____ to see _____ from God's point of view.
2. Surround yourself with people who have _____.
3. Refuse to allow your definition of _____ to be _____ on God.
4. Be courageous enough to act _____ with your emotions.
5. Act on _____ and then _____ that.
6. Expect God to _____ through your mess.

¹² I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, ¹³ so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. ¹⁴ And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. - Philippians 1:12-14

²² The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat them with rods. ²³ And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them safely. ²⁴ Having received this order, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, - Acts 16:22-25
