

Life Group Discussion Questions

July 27, 2025

 This guide may have more questions than your group could reasonably discuss in one meeting. Feel free to pick and choose questions that best encourage, challenge, and instruct your particular participants.

Read Job 15-17

1. Do you ever have times when the "Eliphaz" in your mind accuses and harasses you? ("You are not saved", "you can't do this", "God is not enough", etc...). How do we combat and overcome those thoughts?
2. What does Psalm 31:1-5 teach us about the source of our strength in times of trial? Specifically, how do we apply vs.5?
3. Job pleads for justice, and we may also plead for the same. Read Gen. 18:25. Why can we trust God to be a faithful judge? See also Psalm 37:1-6
4. Persecution, trials and accusations come in life. What do Jesus' words in Matt. 5:11-12 teach us? How can we "rejoice in the midst of those trials? What is the "reward " Christ speaks of?
5. Have you ever been in a conversation with other people that all disagree with you? Did you find it hard to maintain your viewpoint when confronted with multiple dissidents?

love God. love Others. serve the World.

6. When you run low on hope, do you renounce God? How do you maintain your faith when you are lower than low?
7. Have you ever had people add to your sorrow by being unsympathetic? How do you balance wise counsel with empathy?
8. Job was at rock bottom and intimated through multiple conversations that he wanted to die. Yet he did not take his own life. Why?
9. Does the counsel of Job's friends line up with who Jesus is?
